[NUMB. 809.]

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

From MONDAY November 6th, to MONDAY November 13th, 1749.

WARSAW in POLAND, August 5.

THE Locusts begin again to make terrible Havock in several Provinces of this Kingdom.

Debrezen in Hungary, July 29. The Locusts appear again in great Swarms in several Parts of this Kingdom, particularly in the Territories of Boszormen, Nanas, and Dioszeg, in the County of Sabolts, where there are such great Numbers of them, that they occupy a District of 2 or 3 Leagues in Circumference, and are in that Space above an Ell thick. These terrible Insects cause, as last Year, inexpressible Devastations, devouring all the Grass, Leaves and Fruit which they find; so that the Country where they have been appears like a barren Desert.

Lisbon, July 9. The king continues much in the same way, with regard to his health, as he was last post; and the physicians think it wonderful, that his majesty can support himself in such a condition. A few days ago the king having sent for the prince of Brazil, the heir-apparent to the crown, his majesty gave him a very pathetic exhortation upon the duties which would be incumbent upon him, when he mounted the throne of Portugal. At the same time he gave him some instructions in writing, in which he recommends to him the two principal maxims which he had laid down during his reign, which were, to keep in peace with all powers, and carefully to avoid entering into any engagements that might oblige him to take part in their quarrels. It is also to be observed, that the king has entered into no treaties but what immediately regarded the situation of his dominions, or the commerce of his subjects.

Basil, July 26. People here were in great consternation upon the execution of the 16 conspirators, but as this ceased by degrees, the parents and friends of the deceased began to talk in a higher strain. Among other things, they say, that the conspirators had no design upon the lives or liberties of any body, but that the precautions which they took, that the remonstrances they intended to make might not meet with the same fate as those which were formerly made, and that their persons might be secured from violence, was laid to their charge as a crime. Several things have been publish'd here by way of apology for the persons executed, wherein they are treated as martyrs to the publick liberty and the common cause. For fear this ferment should produce some fatal consequences, Mr. Steiger, the chief magistrate, and 3 of the principal members of the senate, who voted for lenity and clemency, are retired into the country, and several of the best families are following their example. Among the papers of Capt. Henzi, was found the speech which he intended to make to the people the day the plot was to take effect; and 'tis said to be a very fine piece, full of manly eloquence, and not inferior to those of the most celebrated orators of antiquity; but it is not likely that the public will ever see an authentic copy of it.

London, August 5. Some Artificers who were found on board a Ship bound for Spain are all secured, and were this Day brought to Town, in order to be examined.

The Reason alledged for the Empress of Russia's so long deferring the sending of a Minister to the Court of Versailles is, the Neglect of the latter in making her Imperial Majesty the Satisfaction she thinks due for the Conduct of the two last French Ministers at Russia, their Conduct with regard to Count de la Salle, as also the Discovery she has made of the too-close Connexion of that Crown with two other Courts.

Extract of a letter from Paris, July 25. N.S.

"After the Earl of Albemarle and the Marquis de Mirepoix have had time to look about them a little, the two courts will nominate commissaries to regulate the limits of Acadia, and clearly distinguish the property of each power. On our side, great stress is laid on certain claims or titles, whereby it appears, that the island of Canso should be included in France's share of that province: And though the British court does not entirely allow this, there is nevertheless room to believe, that the matter will meet with as few difficulties as the affair of Tobago did. There is still more reason to hope so, when we consider the perfect concert that reigns between the two courts, and the good understanding of which they mutually give each other proofs. One of the principal objects they have in view, is to make this harmony subservient to the maintaining of peace in the north, if it be possible to bring the jarring parties to such a final arrangement, as may prevent all causes of discord for the future."——This kind of harmony, says a daily paper, may be productive of discord, not yet understood here, but readily apprehend at St——m, B——n, and V——s, perhaps at R——e too.

Dresden, August 6. Marshal Saxe took his Leave Yesterday of the King and all the Royal Family, and immediately after set out on his Return to France, highly satisfied with the Honours which have been paid him at this Court.

Hanover, Aug. 8. Messrs. Bruckner and Brinck, Professors of the Mathematicks, are come hither to sollicit Letters of Recommendation from the Regency to the British Court. They pretend to have found out the Longitude and Latitude of the Sea, and design to go to London, in order to undergo the requisite Examination, and receive the Recompence of 30,000 l. Sterling, which the Parliament of England has promised for such a Discovery.

London, Aug. 8. According to Letters from Berne of the 6th Inst. Things then remained quiet there, and a Resolution had been taken to reinforce the Garison with 800 Men, in order to keep them so. The Sentences on many of the Conspirators who had been tried were suspended, in expectation of a Deputation from the Canton of Zurich, which was going to Berne in order to interpose in the Affair.

By To day's Mail we have an Account from Germany, of the Death of the Princess Christiana, born Dutchess of Mecklemburgh, on the 3d of this Month, in the 86th Year of her Age. She married the Count of Stolberg, by whom she had 24 Children, 13 of whom survive her. Her Posterity has been so numerous, that she was, at the same Time, respectively Mother, Grand-mother, and Great-Grand-mother, of 151 Persons. This Princess, who has liv'd in Widowhood 39 Years, was, as well in her Death, as thro' the whole Course of her long Life, a perfect Model of Christian Piety.

Paris, August 10. The Comptroller-General has demanded of the Clergy, a particular Declaration of the Amount of their Revenues, in order, it is said, to subject that rich Body to the Payment of the Twentieth Penny, equally with the rest of the Nation.

Vienna, July 29. We are credibly informed, that an Edict will shortly be published, in order to suppress all Luxury and Excess of what Nature or Kind soever, in Imitation of that lately published by his Portugueze Majesty.

London, August 10. Yesterday died at his House in York-Buildings, the Hon. William Barrell, Esq; Lieutenant-General of his Majesty's Forces, Governor of Pendennis-Castle, and Colonel of the King's own Regiment of Foot, commonly called the Old-Buffs, which so bravely distinguished themselves at Falkirk and Culloden. He served his Country with great Honour upwards of fifty Years, and was present at most of the great Actions and Sieges in Flanders during Queen Anne's Wars.

We are assured, that M. Saxe, is negociating for the Acquisition of the Dutchy of Saxe-Weissenfels.

Dresden,

Dresden, August 10. We are assured that the Negociation about the Duchy of Saxe-Weissenfels, of which such Hopes had been conceived, is entirely broke off, tho' Marshal Saxe did offer to pay down upon the Nail Fifteen Millions of Florins, consenting withal, that the said Duchy should, after his Death, revert to the Electorate of Saxony, and be annexed thereto: So that it is now believed he must and will keep his Millions to carry the Election in Courland.

Dantzick, July 31. O.S. The Swedes are repairing all their Frontier Places with the utmost Vigilance, and forming their Magazines, as if they were upon the Eve of a War; and on the other Hand, the Russians have actually sent Artillery Horses to their Troops on the Frontiers of Finland, which is an Expence very rarely made for no Purpose.

Genoa, August 1, O.S. It is said that the Negociation for procuring the Island of Corsica for the Infant Don Philip, is actually perfected, and will speedily be signed by the Plenipotentiaries on both Sides.
